

CE210 HUMANITIES OR LANGUAGE STUDIES

Lecturers: See www.hu.ic.ac.uk

Structure: Humanities : 30 contact hours (20 lectures and 10 fortnightly seminars) Languages : 63 hours (75 for those studying for the Year in Europe degree)

Links: Follows on from CE114
Language study compulsory for Year in Europe students

Students are required to choose from one of the following electives:

Humanities

Although the contact hours are less for the non-language options, the overall number of hours spent (including seminar preparation, background reading, essay writing), should be the same for Humanities as it is for Languages.

- H.1 Philosophy I
- H.4 Controversies and Ethical Dilemmas in Science and Technology
- H.5 European History: 1870-1989
- H.6 Politics
- H.7 Science and Technology in Western Civilisation
- H.8 Global History of Twentieth Century Things
- H.9 History of Medicine
- H.10 Modern Literature and Drama
- H.11 Art of the Twentieth Century – NEW!! (formerly Art & Nature)
- H.12 Music and Western Civilisation
- H.13 Communicating Science: The Public and the Media
- H.15 Humanities Essay
- H.17 The Roman Empire
- H.19 Creative Writing
- H.21 Music Technology – NEW!!
- H.22 Saying True Things: How Science Invents and Persuades – NEW!!

Languages (one of the following)

French, German, Italian, Japanese, Mandarin, Spanish, Russian.

Coursework and submission dates

Humanities

All of the above except H. 10 (three shorter essays), H. 13 (four pieces of coursework), H. 19 (assessment is by portfolio of work submitted at the end of the course) have two assessed essays, one over the Christmas holiday and one over the Easter holiday.

Languages

have continual assessment throughout the year